

Customer Journey Map

An employee requests installation of licensed software through the Service Catalog

Scenario

An employee needs a software application for work, submits a request through the Service Catalog, and the request is approved, fulfilled, and tracked until completion.

A streamlined software request experience leads to faster approvals, efficient IT support, and a more productive workforce.